Your Presenter:

Jerry Bach is the Senior Vice President of Workplace Safety programs for Safety Center. With over 29 years of experience providing training in both the private and public sectors in defensive driving, traffic control, mobile equipment and general safety training, Jerry has been involved with the development of training programs for Cal OSHA staff statewide as well as the customization of training programs for numerous employers in the western United States.

About the meeting:

This presentation will discuss hearing loss across the generations, especially with Millennials. How to manage hearing loss in the workplace, will also be a focus.

You won't want to miss HEARING this informative presentation, it was requested by one of our Millennial members and is also a huge concern for parents with children of all ages.
